When the stakes are highest, you need someone who has been there.

I am a senior advisor with a 30-year record on government restructuring, asset recovery, and high-stakes multinational transactions across the U.S., Gulf, Asia, and Europe. I have advised economies ranging from $22B to $215B on reform and stabilization, led a $160B U.S. government asset recovery, and resolved a $100B real estate negotiation in six weeks. I operate at the intersection of government, finance, and institutional credibility — and I bring, when engagements warrant it, the collective reach of a network of former senior U.S. federal & diplomatic officials.

WHAT I BRING TO AN ENGAGEMENT

Crisis & Turnaround Navigation — Deployed into distressed economies and stalled negotiations. I move fast and hold steady under political and financial pressure.

Corporate & Government Interface — Fluent in the language, pace, and priorities of finance ministries, central banks, and intergovernmental bodies.

Cross-Border Transaction Architecture — Structuring joint ventures, privatizations, and market-entry frameworks across regulatory environments in the Gulf, Asia, and Europe.

Institutional Network Access — Drawing on three decades of relationships across U.S. federal agencies, financial institutions, sovereign bodies, and international legal and media networks.
